

From the TEXAS COAST TO TABLE

The Texas Seafood Trail is your guide to experiencing the best of the Texas Gulf Coast: fresh seafood, local flavors, and the people who bring them to your table.

Every participant has been vetted by Texas Sea Grant, an organization with over 50 years of experience working alongside fishermen, businesses, and communities to support a healthy, sustainable Texas coast.

Visiting GALVESTON?

*Explore Gulf seafood
during your stay:*

TX.AG/TXSeafoodTrail

Sea Grant
TEXAS
AT TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

HOW TEXAS SEA GRANT SUPPORTS THE SEAFOOD INDUSTRY

Texas Sea Grant supports the Gulf seafood industry through science-based research, education, and partnerships that promote sustainable fisheries and strong coastal economies.

Learn more about our mission at TexasSeaGrant.Org

It's more than shopping local

Your visit means so much more than tasty seafood. You are:

- Preserving coastal heritage by sustaining multigenerational fishing traditions that are central to life along Texas bays and estuaries.
- Strengthening coastal economies by supporting Texas fishermen, seafood businesses, and working waterfronts.
- Contributing to improving fisheries management of Texas' diverse aquatic resources

HOW THE TRAIL WORKS

- Use the Map – Explore our interactive map to find restaurants, markets, and farms along the Texas coast.
- Plan Your Journey – Discover regional flavors and plan stops on your next trip to the coast.
- Taste the Coast – Enjoy fresh, Texas-caught seafood prepared by chefs and fishers who are passionate about sustainability.

Know a business not on the map?

TX.AG/TXSFTApply

